PCBC 2015 Annual Conference & Expo Returns to San Diego, CA June 24 & 25

Leading Western United States Building Industry Trade Show to Include Kick-Off Press Tour, Hall of Fame Black Tie Event, Meet the Money Lunch Reception and the 52nd Annual Gold Nugget Awards

SAN DIEGO (June 17, 2015) – PCBC, the largest annual homebuilding trade show in the Western United States, returns to San Diego the week of June 22. The official PCBC Conference & Expo will occur on June 24 & 25 at the San Diego Convention Center. A new home community press tour, sponsored by the California Building Industry Association \(CBIA\) in conjunction with KB Home, will kick-off the convention festivities on June 22. PCBC will also feature a number of additional events for attendees including the Hall of Fame black tie event, Meet the Money Lunch Reception and prestigious 52nd Annual Gold Nugget Awards.

Kicking off the week of PCBC, the CBIA and KB Home will host a media tour of a new home development featuring cutting-edge water conservation features. The newly opened development is the first new home community in the nation where all of the homes are built with advanced on-site water recycling capabilities. The media tour will take place on June 22 at 11:00am onsite at Sea Cliff, which is located at 12708 Cloudbreak Avenue in San Diego. During the tour, CBIA CEO and President Dave Cogdill will discuss the economic impact of the new construction industry on the California's economy and technical experts from KB Home will detail the cutting-edge water conservation technology utilized in this unique community.

The Hall of Fame gala honors individuals who have enriched the homebuilding industry through innovation, public service and philanthropy. To be held on the eve of June 23 at the Hilton San Diego Bayfront hotel, the celebration reunites the most successful builders, architects, developers and real estate professionals, who will gather to honor incoming Hall of Fame inductees. Six outstanding leaders in homebuilding will be inducted and include: Joseph D. Davis, chief investment officer of The New Home Company; Howard Englander, principal of The Englander Company / Shea Homes; William S. Hezmelhalch, FARA, AIA, president of William Hezmelhalch Architects, Inc.; Jeffrey M. Pemstein, division president, Homes by Towne – Sacramento (a Ziber Brand); Toni Raymus, president of Raymus Homes; Michael L. Woodley, AIA, president of Woodley Architectural Group, Inc. The Hall of Fame is sponsored by the California Homebuilding Foundation.

The Meet the Money Lunch Reception is an informal lunch event designed to provide networking opportunities with leading industry lenders and equity sources. To take place on June 24 from 12:00 – 1:30pm, the event will provide lunch and informal face-to-face time with attendees and capital sources. The Meet the Money Lunch Reception is sponsored by Cox Castle Nicholson and Meyers Research.

PCBC will also host the coveted 52nd Annual Gold Nugget Awards, a distinguished program recognizing those who improve our communities through exceptional concepts in design, planning and development. The oldest and most prestigious design awards in the nation, the Gold Nugget Awards are a centerpiece of PCBC and will be held on June 25 at the San Diego Convention Center Ballroom 20D from 5:30 – 8:30pm. Open to all builders, developers, architects and land planners with communities and projects in the United States and all international countries, the awards will honor winners who demonstrate excellence and innovation in addressing complex design/build issues.

Attendance to PCBC 2015 is expected to reach 10,000. Participants include home builders, developers, architects, investors, capital providers, general contractors, trade contractors, interior designers, remodelers, real estate brokers, consultants, product manufacturers, dealers, distributors, and other industry advisors. Attendees originate from the Western United States, Canada, Mexico and approximately 25 additional countries.
